NATIONAL FEDERATION OF PARALEGAL ASSOCIATIONS (NFPA®)
ANNOUNCES 2016 PARALEGAL EDUCATION GROUP (PEG) PARALEGAL CERTIFICATION SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Oakbrook Terrace, IL — The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA) is pleased to announce the recipients of the Paralegal Education Group Paralegal Certification Scholarship winners.

Brittany L. Hays of Hilliard, Ohio, is the recipient of the Paralegal Advanced Competency Exam (PACE®) Scholarship. She is a member of the Paralegal Association of Central Ohio (PACO) serving as the Chair of the Bylaws and Election Committees. Ms. Hays received her Bachelor's Degree in 2012 from Ohio University and has been a paralegal for over 15 years. She performs pro bono services through PACO and the Legal Aid Society.

Kimberly P. Morton of Alexandria, Virginia, is the recipient of the Paralegal CORE Competency Exam (PCCE™) Scholarship. She is a member of the National Capital Area Paralegal Association in Washington, D.C. She received her Paralegal Certificate from George Mason University in Fairfax, Virginia. She also received her Bachelor's Degree in 1980 from Longwood University in Farmville, Virginia. She is a paralegal with the Federal Government. She performs pro bono services with the Legal Services of Northern Virginia at the Uncontested Divorce Clinic. In September 2015, Ms. Morton received an Under Secretary of the Army Coin by the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army for program management and paralegal work with the Army Civil Liberties Program.

NFPA's PACE Exam is designed for paralegals who have comprehensive education in paralegal studies and years of practical experience. Earning the RP® designation by passing the PACE Exam shows that you are one of the best in the field. NFPA's PCCE™ Exam was designed to test the core competencies in paralegals and take into account coursework in paralegal programs as well as essential basic competency in the profession. Those who have passed the PCCE™ may proudly display the CRP™ designation. NFPA's certification exams presents a bold career path to paralegals who qualify to advance the profession through credentialing.

The Paralegal Education Group, LLC., provides an educational platform created to provide cutting edge online training products for paralegals and affordable legal education while delivering state-of-the-art learning experiences.

NFPA is a non-profit professional organization representing more than 8,000 paralegals and is headquartered in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois. NFPA's Core Purpose is the advancement of the paralegal profession. NFPA promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.
