Affiliating with NFPA benefits all of your members

The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.

Founded in 1974 by eight local association, NFPA was the first national paralegal association. NFPA is an issues-driven, policy-oriented professional association directed by its membership.

It is comprised of member associations and represents over 8,000 individual members reflecting a broad range of experience, education and diversity.

The Voice of the Paralegal Profession

NFPA advances the paralegal profession by:

- Being responsive to member needs.
- Providing leadership to individual members and to member associations.
- Staying committed to the profession's Code of Ethics.
- Practicing transparency.
- Delivering life-long learning opportunities.
