The National Federation of Paralegal Associations
Presents Paralegal of the Year Award

Indianapolis, IN, October 2019 - The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA®) presented the Paralegal of the Year award to Sheila White, on October 12 at its 2019 Annual Convention in Rochester, New York.

Ms. White has been a paralegal for nearly 25 years, with experience in several areas of law, including finance, lending, banking, contract, corporate, entity formation and management, real estate, merger and acquisitions, securities and intellectual property.

For the past 11 years, Ms. White has served as a Girl Scout Troop Leader having an immeasurable impact to her group and community. Joining the Dallas Area Paralegal Association (DAPA) in 1995, she has dedicated and served in many roles while mentoring paralegal leaders at DAPA and other members of the legal department which she currently is employed. Ms. White is also an active volunteer for her church teaching Sunday school. She is described as the go-to person for tasks far outside of her Senior Paralegal position.

The Paralegal of the Year Award recognizes an individual NFPA member whose on-the-job achievements, including contributions to his/her employer, colleagues and the paralegal profession, have contributed to expansion of the paralegal profession in general.

NFPA is a non-profit professional organization representing more than 8,000 paralegals and is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. NFPA's core purpose is the advancement of the paralegal profession. NFPA promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.
