

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Jersey Paralegal Re-Elected Region Director for the National Federation of Paralegal Associations

Indianapolis, IN, October 2019 - The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA®) is pleased to announce Rebecca Reedy, of Burlington, New Jersey has been re-elected to a third term for the position of Director, Region VI for 2019-2020. The elections were held at NFPA's Annual Convention in Rochester, New York on October 12, 2019.

Reedy is employed for the State of New Jersey, Department of Child Protection and Permanency, as a litigation paralegal specializing in family law. Prior to her employment with the State, she worked in areas such as personal injury, medical and legal malpractice.

Reedy received her Associate's Degree in Business Administration from Burlington County Community College (now known as Rowan College) and a Bachelor's Degree in Paralegal Studies from Peirce College. She currently serves on the Advisory Committees for the Paralegal Studies programs with Rowan College, Peirce College and Brookdale Community College.

Reedy has served many roles in with the South Jersey Paralegal Association (SJPA) since becoming a member in 2005. She served as SJPA President from 2012–2014 while also representing SJPA as their NFPA Primary Delegate simultaneously. She also served as Scholarship Chair, Chair of the New Jersey Certified Paralegal program and Board Advisor. Reedy is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association, a member of its Paralegal Committee and also a member of the Burlington County Bar Association.

Prior to be elected to NFPA Region Director, Reedy served on the Nominations Committee, Strategic Planning Committee and was the Chair of the State of the Paralegal Profession Committee. She has also served as Special Research Coordinator and Inside Reports Coordinator for NFPA.

The Region IV Director is responsible for helping local associations in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Washington, D.C. and West Virginia, and are the main liaison between member associations and other NFPA Board members.

NFPA is a non-profit professional organization representing more than 8,000 paralegals and is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. NFPA's core purpose is the advancement of the paralegal profession. NFPA promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.

NFPA – The Leader of the Paralegal Profession®
www.paralegals.org

###

CONTACT

Amanda S. Bureau, CAE, CVA
NFPA Executive Director
amanda@paralegals.org

---

NFPA, NFPA – The Leader of the Paralegal Profession, PACE and RP are registered trademarks of the National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc.