The National Federation of Paralegal Associations awards PACE Scholarship to Becky Kerstetter

Indianapolis, IN – January 2019 - The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA[®]) awarded a PACE[®] Scholarship to Becky Kerstetter on October 27 at the 2018 Annual Convention in Seattle, WA. Sponsored by the Paralegal Education Group (PEG), this scholarship covers the costs of a review manual, a PEG online review course and the exam fee for PACE.

Kerstetter is a member of the Cleveland Association of Paralegals (CAP) and has been an active member of the CAP Board for more than a decade, having held essentially every leadership position. She is currently in her second, going on third, nonconsecutive term as association president.

NFPA is a non-profit professional organization representing more than 8,000 paralegals and is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana. NFPA's core purpose is the advancement of the paralegal profession. NFPA promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.
