TEXAS PARALEGAL ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTOR OF MARKETING FOR THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF PARALEGAL ASSOCIATIONS (NFPA®)

Edmonds, WA – December, 2015 - The National Federation of Paralegal Associations, Inc. (NFPA) is pleased to announce that Lisa Lynch, CRP™, of Dallas, Texas has been elected to the position of Vice President and Director of Marketing for the 2015-2017 terms. She previously served NFPA as Membership Growth Coordinator and Technology Coordinator.

Lisa Lynch, CRP™, is currently employed as a Senior Litigation Paralegal in the Dallas City Attorney's Office, Dallas, Texas. In this role, she is responsible for supporting city lawyers in litigation tasks in cases involving environmental, constitutional, commercial, contract, real property, and regulatory law, among others. Ms. Lynch assists with legal holds, e-discovery issues, trial preparation, and other litigation matters and functions as a legal technology and litigation support specialist.

Ms. Lynch obtained her Paralegal Certificate from the Professional Development Institute at the University of North Texas in 1993. She was certified by NFPA as a Core Registered Paralegal in 2011, becoming one of the first 16 CRPs in the State of Texas and initial 148 paralegals in the nation who passed the pilot exam administered at 12 test sites across the country.

Ms. Lynch is involved with the paralegal profession on the national, state and local levels. She is a member of the Dallas Area Paralegal Association (DAPA) and the Paralegal Division of the State Bar of Texas (PD). In DAPA, Lisa has served in leadership positions, including: DAPA President, President-Elect, Board Advisor, Vendor Advisor, NFPA Primary and Secondary and Public Relations Chairperson and mentor.

Ms. Lynch also participates in DAPA's mentor/protégé program and is a volunteer with the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program and other community service programs benefiting such non-profits as the North Texas Food Bank, Juliette Fowler and The Stewpot.

In 2014, Ms. Lynch was presented with the DAPA Paralegal of the Year Award. In 2015, Ms. Lynch was presented with the DAPA President's Award.

The vice president and director of marketing shall be responsible for all aspects of marketing which include the development of NFPA's marketing plan, strategies and promotion materials. The vice president and director of marketing shall supervise all activities concerned with the implementation of the Corporate Partners Program, development and growth of other marketing programs, and shall have other duties as may be assigned by the board of directors or the president.

NFPA is a non-profit professional organization representing more than 8,000 paralegals and is headquartered in Edmonds, WA. NFPA's core purpose is the advancement of the paralegal profession. NFPA promotes a global presence for the paralegal profession and leadership in the legal community.
