

Transportation options from Hotel to Seattle:

King County Metro Bus: King County boasts numerous “green” options for getting around be it by bus, bike or light rail. Check out their options and plan your trip at <https://www.kingcounty.gov/depts/transportation/metro.aspx>. Be sure to download to your mobile phone the app One Bus Away for real time updates and schedule planning on Metro’s busses. The hotel is providing each guest with a Link Light Rail pass and there is a sky bridge that goes to the rail station right across the street.

Taxis, Uber and Lyft: King County has a large presence of taxis, Uber and Lyft drivers, for those who want to carpool or need more flexibility than public transportation.

Car2Go: The City of Seattle sports a car sharing program that is currently offering $10 in credit for a $5 signup fee. There are a fleet of 2-seater cars parked around the City that you can reserve or just grab and go as you please. Bonus – park in any approved legal spot and no need to refuel! Check their program out and sign up here <https://www.car2go.com/US/en/#152742>.

Zipcar: Their tag line says it all, “Own the trip, not the car.” There are numerous Zipcars located in King County. Check them out and sign up here <https://www.zipcar.com>.

Washington State Ferries: If you’re looking for something a little different and tap into your inner seaperson, take a ride on one of the State ferries. There are quick trips from Downtown Seattle to Bainbridge Island (35 min. crossing) and Bremerton (35 min. crossing foot ferry; 60 min. crossing auto ferry). You pay in Seattle for round-trip fare, so plan to stay awhile in Bainbridge Island or Bremerton and walk their local shops, wine taste, tap into a brewery, or just wander. Check out routes and fares here <http://www.wsdot.wa.gov> and download their super convenient app on your mobile for real time traffic and ferry alerts.

King County Water Taxi: Or take an adventure to West Seattle or Vashon Island from Downtown on King County’s walk-on ferry service. Check them out at <https://kingcounty.gov/depts/transportation/water-taxi.aspx>.
